To whom it may Concern,

I would like to recommend Philip Beckett of The Insurance Centre, Norwich. I cannot thank him enough for sorting out both my holiday and my business insurance.

I am planning a major holiday later this spring and I know that personal holiday insurance can be difficult to find for people over 70. This was not a problem for Philip, I left with the cover I needed and at a competitive price.

This time of year also marks the anniversary of me setting up Saffire Chocolates and therefore, the annual renewal of my business insurance along with public and employee liability fall due. I asked Philip to provide me with a quotation, again he was very competitive and produced a like-for-like cover for 20% less than I paid last year with a different broker.

I have no hesitation in recommending Philip Beckett of the Insurance Centre in Norwich.
